The membership figures as printed in the Yearbook of 1943 do not include Non-Resident Members.

NOTE: These changes, of course, affect the totals of Inclusive Church Membership as found on pages 148, 149, 150. To each figure should be added 1,173,467.

INTRODUCTION

THE Yearbook of American Churches is a reference work that has been issued under the auspices of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America since 1916. It has been published biennially since 1933. This is the sixteenth issue.

The Yearbook continues to present comprehensive information with respect to organized religion in the United States. It consists chiefly of directories and of available statistics about organized religion in the nation.

Among the nine directories, the largest lists the religious bodies in the United States. It contains the names and officers of all religious bodies that reported to the Bureau of the Census for the Census of Religious Bodies, 1936, published in 1941. The Editor, however, made additional inquiries in an effort to list the officers of all known religious bodies. Ten bodies are listed in this Yearbook for the first time. Some of the Canadian churches are also included.

Special attention is also called to the "Field Organization Directory," which contains the names of state and local cooperative agencies and their officers. For certain major denominations, state and district officials are published.

War Service Agencies, both of national religious bodies and of national interdenominational organizations, will be found in the respective directories.

The section on statistics contains the "latest information" available about church membership in the United States. All known religious bodies were asked to file the most recent data available with regard to their memberships. The Editor of the Yearbook simply summarizes the official reports made to him. He does not make any studies of church membership. A number of religious bodies do not make annual reports of church membership. For these the latest information is that contained in the Census of Religious Bodies, 1936. This Census was regarded as satisfactory for a proportion of the religious bodies of the nation, but as very incomplete for numerous others. Since the 1936 figures are sometimes the latest available, the Editor has no other choice but to list them when a responsible official cannot furnish later data.

There are no annual comprehensive reports of the income and expenditures of all of the churches in the United States. The latest annual figures published by the United Stewardship Council are included in our statistical section. An estimate of total "gifts and bequests to religion" for all purposes is also given.

The Editor of this Yearbook simply collects and presents, often in brief form, data generously supplied by others. In carrying through the project he has received advice from the secretaries of the Federal Council. He has also received assistance from the staff of the Department of Research and Education of the Federal Council.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

"Jehovah's Witnesses are Christians, people not identified with any sect or denomination. They are associated with the corporations known as the Watch Tower Bible & Tract Society, Watchtower Bible & Tract Society, Incorporated, and International Bible Students Association. It was the Watch Tower & Bible Tract Society that Pastor Charles Taze Russell and others of Jehovah's witnesses incorporated in 1884, for the advancement of Christian work and the preaching of 'this gospel of the kingdom' 'in all the world for a witness.'"

"Upon the death of Pastor Russell in 1916, Judge Joseph F. Rutherford became president of the organization and continued until January 8, 1942, at which time he finished his earthly course. He was succeeded as president of the Society by Nathan H. Knorr.

"Jehovah's witnesses are an organized body and have groups in practically all cities throughout the United States, as well as in other parts of the world, for the purpose of regular Bible study. They do not keep a membership roll, nor do they compile any census regarding attendance at their meeting places throughout the world. Jehovah's witnesses meet in halls or auditoriums and do not construct their own church buildings."—From a statement by the President to the Editor of the Yearbook.

METHODIST BODIES

THE METHODIST CHURCH

In April, 1939, the Uniting Conference forming The Methodist Church was held by representatives of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South and the Methodist Protestant Church. The Methodist Church in the United States originated with the efforts of John and Charles Wesley, leaders of the revival movement in England in the 18th century. Methodist emigrants from Ireland planted Methodism in America about 1760. In 1771 Francis Asbury, one of Wesley's preachers, later a Bishop, landed in Philadelphia. The Methodist Episcopal Church was organized in 1784-85. The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, dates from 1846, the separation from the Methodist Episcopal Church having taken place over the slavery issue. The Methodist Protestant Church dated from 1830, and was organized over the issue of lay representation.

III. STATISTICS

This section is largely devoted to a compilation of "the latest information" about church membership in the United States, made by the editor for this volume. The tables on this subject, appearing below, were assembled in the following manner: A statistical blank was mailed to the chief statistical officer of all the religious bodies that reported to the Bureau of the Census for the Census of Religious Bodies, 1936. Inquiry was also made to learn about other churches not included in that Census. (A few of the latter did not reply.) The form asked for current data on the number of local churches, on inclusive church membership and on the number of members 13 years of age and over. Definitions of membership vary widely and the number of members reported below is in accordance with the definitions used by the body reporting.

Many religious bodies do not make annual tabulations of their memberships. Some reply by simply asking us to use the 1936 figures or those published in previous Yearbooks. The 1936 Census of Religious Bodies was regarded as complete and satisfactory by certain denominations and as very incomplete by others. About half of the religious bodies reporting do not have records for the proportion of membership 13 years of age and over. For those not reporting on this item we have applied, wherever possible, the percentage for this age group as reported by the Census of Religious Bodies, 1936, and have indicated that this is an estimate.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP AND POPULATION

The summary of the latest official reports of church membership, printed above, reveals a total church membership of 67,327,719 persons. This is the highest total ever reported. The statistical reports are mainly for the years 1941 and 1942. On January 1, 1942, the total population of the Continental United States was estimated to be 133,952,672 persons by the Bureau of the Census. The total reported for church membership was 50.3 per cent of the total population; this was the highest proportion ever reported. In 1890, for example, the proportion of church membership to population was reported to be 22.2 per cent. The proportion of church membership officially reported has steadily increased since 1890.

Between 1930 and January, 1942, the population of the Continental United States increased from 122,775,046 to 133,952,672, a total gain of 11,177,626 persons, or 9.1 per cent, according to Census figures.

Between 1931, the year of the first compilation of church membership of the scope now being made, and the period 1941-42, summaries of official reports of church membership have revealed a gain in inclusive church membership from 59,797,851 to 67,327,719, or 7,529,868 persons, an increase of 12.9 per cent.

GIFTS TO PROTESTANT RELIGIOUS BODIES, 1921-42

Dr. Harry S. Myers, secretary of the United Stewardship Council, Hillsdale, Mich., has made a special compilation of total and per capita gifts to sixteen Protestant bodies for which data were published in the years 1921-1942 inclusive. (Fiscal years vary considerably, and the 1942 reports are those compiled and published this year, and are obviously not for the calendar year, 1942.)

These figures present the most comprehensive comparable information now available. The tabulation made is as follows:

ESTIMATES OF GIFTS AND BEQUESTS TO RELIGION

The total contributions to and expenditures of the religious bodies of the United States are not reported annually and are not known for all bodies for recent years. The only figures generally regarded as complete were those for the year 1926, as reported by the Census of Religious Bodies for that year. The Department of Commerce, however, makes an annual estimate of total "gifts and bequests to religion" in the United States. The totals reported by that Department for recent, alternate years are as follows:

Gifts and Bequests to Religion

(Estimated by Department of Commerce)
1929.....	$929,000,000
1931.....	757,900,000
1933.....	539,000,000
1935.....	570,500,000
1937.....	621,400,000
1939.....	589,600,000
1941.....	657,000,000

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION STATISTICS

By means of cooperation between the Department of Research of the International Council of Religious Education, 203 North Wabash Ave., Chicago, and the Editor of the Yearbook a compilation was made of "the latest statistical information" available on certain aspects of religious education. These reports are published for all religious bodies in the continental United States in the 1943 Yearbook of the International Council. A summary of the totals for the items reported is given in the table below:

PROFESSOR WILLIAM G. MATHER OF FRANKLIN COLLEGE, INDIANA, WRITES:

"The Council on Christian Social Progress of the Northern Baptist Convention decided that one of the problems to be solved immediately is the relationship of races to each other. We selected a 32-page, inexpensive, factually sound but unemotional booklet, The Negro and the War, published by the Public Affairs Committee, Inc.

"Our imprint, a one-page introduction on the inside front cover of the 6,000 copies we purchased, gave the religious implications of this problem which concerns all of us.

"We sent about 5,300 copies to our Baptist pastors. As a result, our somewhat loosely-organized denomination has been made aware of a serious social and religious problem to which thousands of us had not given much thought.

"One pastor reported that he used this pamphlet in a public forum talk; afterwards a man with decidedly anti-colored views admitted it was the fairest discussion of the race question he had heard.

"It is the second time we have so used Public Affairs Pamphlets. We shall do so again. The cost is less, and the product better, than if we, with our meager resources, tried to do the whole job ourselves."

FELLOWSHIP OF RECONCILIATION

2929 Broadway, New York City

The Fellowship of Reconciliation is a membership organization which developed soon after the outbreak of World War I as a movement of Christian protest against war and of faith in a better way than violence for the solution of all conflict. Its members, organized in twenty countries, believe that they must practice the way of love as seen preeminently in Jesus, and refuse to participate in any war or to sanction military preparations. They work to abolish war and to foster good will among nations, races, and classes.

The American section publishes the monthly magazine Fellowship, together with books and pamphlets dealing with international, economic, and social problems. It also sponsors an organization for high school age young people, the FORERUNNERS, and publishes study booklets and other material for this group. There are no membership dues. Subscription to Fellowship is $1.50 per year. Chairman is the Reverend Arthur L. Swift, Jr. Co-Secretaries are the Reverend A. J. Muste and the Reverend John Nevin Sayre.

THE GOLDEN RULE FOUNDATION

See Directory of Social Agencies

The Golden Rule Foundation, incorporated by special act of the Legislature of the State of New York, seeks to serve the American public as "a people's foundation," rendering to the average citizen a service somewhat similar to that rendered to their respective founders by well-known private foundations. This includes:

1. Study of needs as to strategic importance.
2. Stewardship education and stimulation of increased sharing by promotion of (a) International Golden Rule Week (b) Golden Rule Observance of Mothers' Day (c) Religion and Welfare Program.
3. Allocation of relief and welfare funds as grants-in-aid to institutions and agencies recommended by the Survey Committee.
4. Administration of trust funds for philanthropic purposes. These funds may be contributed as (a) Unconditional gifts (b) Memorial gifts and funds (c) Gifts on the annuity plan (d) Private Benevolent Funds (e) Bequests by will.

THE GOLDEN RULE FOUNDATION

60 East 42nd Street, New York, N.Y.

Officers—Hon. Hill Montague, Chairman; Albert Shaw, Vice-Chairman; Charles V. Vickrey, President; H. G. Hillier, Treasurer.

AMERICAN MISSION TO LEPERS, INC.

(See Directory of Social Agencies)

NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS: 156 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y.; 77 W. Washington Street, Chicago; 140 Public Square, Cleveland, Ohio; 4 Park Street, Boston; 307 S. Hill Street, Los Angeles, Calif.; 411 Henry Grady Building, Atlanta, Ga.

PURPOSE: to enable the medical missionaries of all Protestant Boards of Missions to care for and, when possible, to cure lepers.

The Mission is the recognized auxiliary for this special ministry of all the Boards, denominational and non-denominational. These Boards, as a rule, make no appropriation for the maintenance of leper work but rely on the Mission for the support of their own work of this kind. The service of lepers is equally physical and spiritual, the two inseparably joined as they were in the life of our Lord. The missionary leper colonies are Christian communities in which forsaken and lonely people find the love of God through the love of men.

THE ALLENTOWN BIBLE INSTITUTE Allentown, Pa.

School of Theology; co-educational; seminary courses; four-year accredited courses in high school; Bible courses by correspondence. Board and tuition costs are reasonable. Catalog upon request. Rev. Harold D. Dieter, D.D., President.

Consult Möller on Pipe Organ Problems

Today, the resources of Möller and the skill of Möller craftsmen are devoted to serving America. This, plus the fact that our country has first call on the strategic materials fine organs require, makes it impossible for us to build new organs at present.

However, we shall be happy to quote on the rebuilding of organs where essential metals are not required, and our organ service will be maintained . . . Meanwhile, the Möller artisans are being retained and, when Peace is ours again, Möller instruments will be more magnificent than ever.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

Founded 1816

For one hundred twenty-five years the American Bible Society has been the primary agency of the American churches in the translation, publication, and distribution of the Holy Scriptures throughout America and the world.

In these crucial days mankind desperately needs the positive answer found in the Book. The American Bible Society appeals to the churches and individuals of America to make possible the supply of Bibles, Testaments, and Portions not only to the missionary frontiers of the world but also to dislocated multitudes, refugees, prisoners of war, men under arms and in training camps in this country.

"Old Buttonwood"

The Presbyterian Ministers' Fund had its beginning as the "Fund for Pious Uses" in 1717. Its birthplace was "Old Buttonwood," the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, erected in 1704. For more than 225 years the Fund has been dedicated to the service of ministers and their families.

THE FUND'S SERVICE has broadened since that humble beginning. It is now dedicated to the service of ministers, their wives and theological students of every Protestant denomination—in foreign fields as missionaries—in large and small congregations as pastors—in seminaries as students—and in the armed forces as Chaplains.

THE SALVATION ARMY

- IS CALLED the "Church of the Black Sheep" and gives a message of the gospel in highway and byway and in the dark and altogether unlovely places, bringing light and help and peace.

- OPERATES hundreds of institutions which relieve physical distress. It also brings a message of spiritual freedom and redemption.

New Abingdon-Cokesbury Good Books

Christian Symbolism

T. A. STAFFORD • "Comprehensive, interesting . . . with scores of illustrations and twelve chapters of text written with clarity and sympathetic understanding, this book will help to overcome a vast weight of religious illiteracy that encumbers the work of the 'evangelical' churches for which Dr. Stafford writes." Zions Herald. $2

The Philosophy of the Christian World Mission

E. D. SOPER • Selected by the Religious Book Club Editorial Committee "because of sound insights into the nature of the Christian message, well-balanced judgments of the non-Christian religions, and keen discernment of the strategy of the world-wide Church . . . a basic study of Christianity and of the foundations on which the Christian world movement rests." $2.50

The New Order in the Church

WILLIAM ADAMS BROWN • This book challenges the Church itself to demonstrate within its own life the changes which it recommends to the world at large. It proposes a specific program of thought and action by which the Church may further not merely a temporary peace but the everlasting purposes of God for mankind, playing its worthy part in the building of a new world. $1.50

Christian Bases of World Order

Twelve Experts in the Fields of Political and Social Economy, Foreign Policy, Education, Religion, Public Health, and Race Relations.

These 1943 Merrick (Delaware Conference) Lectures are unified by their singleness of aim: to discover a framework of society in which free men may find satisfaction for the great human needs of body and spirit. The conviction which moves the authors singly and together toward the goal of the family of nations is that the ethic of the worth of the individual man must triumph over the ideology of Tokyo and Berlin. Their basic, intelligent thinking will be of immeasurable value to all who would meet sanely an unprecedented crisis. $2

Abundant Living

E. STANLEY JONES • "This glowing book is a vital sharing of progressive Christian experience. It radiates health for the total life. Its analyses, its spiritual insight, and its practical devotions open to every reader's grasp the opportunities for living abundantly."—Pulpit Bulletin.

Section I, Facing and Overcoming Obstacles in the Quest. Section II, Exploring and Appropriating Resources for Abundant Living. Section III, Special Meditations. $1

The Historic Church and Modern Pacifism

UMPHREY LEE • "An important contribution to the discussion of the Christian and war . . . essentially and consistently a historical study. Its treatment is objective and fair . . . clearing the ground of unwarranted arguments and opening the way for an empirical approach to the war problem in the light of Christian principles."—Charles Clayton Morrison. $2

The Spiritual Life

EDGAR S. BRIGHTMAN • "Interesting, helpful discussion. . . . He examines the nature, value, and presuppositions of 'spirit' . . . , thus providing a useful background for the understanding and practice of 'the spiritual life.' Scholarly, well-written."—Christian Science Monitor. $2
